

Adams, E. D.

March 28, 1898

Hill to Adams

Re competition for trade of Palouse & Walla Walla country , both sides of Snake River, "a rich country abundantly supplied with railroads and our Company hopes that it can always have a access through the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Co. and we have no idea of being shut out of it We desire to avoid all unnecessary construction but will build if necessary.

JJH LetterBook, 10/11/95 - 3/13/99, p. 289