

Alma Northern Railway

February 6, 1886

Hill to H. B. Strait, M.C. in Washington

"A year or more ago Congress granted the Alma Northern Railway of Wisconsin the right to build bridges across the Wisconsin, Chippewa, and St. Croix rivers.... [It] has since become incorporated in the Chicago, Burlington & Northern Railway with all of its rights. Was the right to build bridges passed on to the new company?

JJH LetterBook, 9/12/85 - 3/22/86, p. 720