

Angus, Richard B/

May 31, 1883

Hill to Angus

Introducing G. B. Wright, "who has in view for himself and associates the construction of a Railroad through the Kootenay Valley in British Columbia." Wants to lay his plans before the Canadian Pacific Road. "I find that he is well informed as to the Interior of British Columbia having had charge of the construction of wagon roads through the territory at an early day."

JJH LetterBook, 3/15/83 - 7/31/83, p. 179