

Armstrong, John A.

Was a partner of J. J. Hill's in Hill, Griggs and Company, and John A. Armstrong Company, which was formed on August 25, 1869 to carry on a wood business. See:: articles of co-partnership of this date. Was also a partner in the firm of Hill and Acker, formed May 1, 1875. This firm was to be known as Hill and Acker, or John A. Armstrong "as found convenient." Apparently the firm later became Hill, Saunders and Acker, which was dissolved May 1, 1878. See: copy of letter from Hill to Union Chemical Company, Oct. 31, 1878 - in letterbook for this date. Armstrong died on November 18, 1878. ?