

Automation

May 20, 1907

Hill to John J. D. Trenor, N.Y.

Replying to letter of 15th, describes influence of immigration on labor situation west of the Mississippi and especially in Pacific Northwest as decidedly beneficial because of scarcity of manual laborers for farming, mining, logging, &c. Because of this scarcity, large farms are forming to utilize machines in place of men.

JJH LetterBook, 6/7/05 - 3/11/08, p. 318