

Avalanches- Railroad accidents March 3, 1910

Charles Steele to Hill

"I was greatly distressed to read of the extraordinary misfortune which has overtaken one of your trains. I do not think I ever heard of such a thing as an avalanche sweeping the train off the track.

General Correspondence by Date