

Bacon, Robert

1900

Bacon succeeded C. Coster in the J.P.Morgan firm as special atty. for Nor. Pac. matters in 1900; and ~~who~~ had been on the Minn. iron ranges. His letters of 1900 tell much about logging and lumbering in northern Minnesota, including the logging railroads. See especial letter of July 27, 1900; as do also Hill's letters to him.
