

Baker, George F.

July 26, 1904

George F. Baker to J. J. Hill.

Harriman and Stillman have made a very favorable impression in Paris and London. Harriman claims that he wants only a fair share of the Burlington, and is ready to make any reasonable settlement.

General correspondence by date