

Baltimore & Ohio Road

May 14, 1901

J. Philip Armour [?] to J. J. Hill.

"The Board desires me to express to you their great regret in accepting your resignation and their high appreciation of the service you have rendered the Company during your connection with it."

General correspondence by date