

Bertier - Portraits

1887, May 12.

J. Oehme to Hill.

"We shall make it a point to have M. Bertier come to St. Paul to satisfactorily execute the portraits. As soon as we have seen and explained matters to him, we shall write you. Perhaps it would be best for him to come now, as during the summer he is to be at Newport."

General Correspondence.