

Borup, Dr. Chas. Wm. Wulff      September 1, 1910

Hill to Robert Bacon

"Mrs. Captain Hartley, formerly of St. Paul, is now in Paris with her niece, Miss Yvette Borup. Latter wants to enter French Conservatoire... Captain Hartley was an early friend of mine, and his widow is a member of one of the oldest and best families in our state. Her father, Doctor Borup, was the head of the largest banking house in the North West when I came to the Territory, fifty-four years ago."
