

Brewster and Co.

Jan. 2, 1895

Brewster and Co. to JJH, General Correspondence

"As promised, we beg to enclose you herein four samples, showing different shades of red. The lightest one is such as we use on our trotting wagons, and which you thought would be too light for your daughter's trap, in case you ordered it built."