

Bull, B. S.

June 18, 1886

Hill to Bull, Minneapolis

Re Shropshire and Highland sheep to be imported
"The Highland sheep are probably the best quality of mutton of any breed, not quite so heavy carcass as the Shropshire and not so good wool. They are, however, about as hardy as the goat and are prolific breeders."

JJH LetterBook, 3/22/86 p 10/22/86, p. 342