

Bulls

February 15, 1899

Toomey[?] to Anton Ziekl.

"It is now eight or nine years ago since Mr. Hill distributed the thorough bred bulls referred to, no bulls having been distributed by him since then; and on account of the ingratitude shown by the farmers generally, in disposing of these bulls for beef and other purposes, Mr. Hill will not, I think, distribute any bulls hereafter."

General Corresponden      by Date.