

Bulls

December 28, 1899

Lewis Bond to James J. Hill.

"The pure bred bulls that you sent out among the farmers a few years ago, greatly increased in quality and value, the native and grade cattle that settlers brought with them."

General correspondence by date