

Burke, Thomas

February 7, 1899

Telegram (in code & translation)
Thomas Burke to Jas. J. Hill.

Has had word from Washington that Senators Fairbanks and Foster are inclined to give the British everything that they ask for on the boundary question. Believes only huge efforts will prevent the ceding of territory.

General correspondence by date