

Burke, Thomas

August 13, 1902

Thomas Burke to J. J. Hill.

The farmers in eastern Washington wish to put their surplus money into the stock of the Northern Securities Company. Burke would like Hill to send him data on this stock, so that the farmers can know what they are buying.

General correspondence by date