

Canada - Boundary Waters treaty Jany.30,1909

Thomas H. Carter to Hill

The senator takes up the treaty with Great Britain re boundary waters (especially at St. Mary's and Milk rivers in Montana). Senator Knute Nelson is fearful that by articles 2,3, and 4 "the stipulations referred to in the drainage of swamps and damming of waters for power in certain streams contiguous to and running into the Rainy Lake from our side might prove embarrassing."
