

Cannon, H. W.

December 17, 1898.

H. W. Cannon to James J. Hill.

Does not see much chance of an early settlement in the controversy between the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company and the Northern Pacific Road. Believes the Northern Pacific people "are worried over the situation, and if they continue their anxiety very likely they may take a more reasonable view of the case."

General Correspondence  Date.