

Carp, Johann or John

first met James J. Hill in December, 1876. States, "I know Messrs. Norman W. Kittson and James J. Hill. I first made the acquaintance of Mr. Hill. Mr. Farley introduced me to him a morning in December, 1876, at the depot of the railroad."

See: Page 735 (In the United States Circuit Court, District of Minnesota. In Equity. Jesse P. Farley, complainant vs. James J. Hill, The St. Paul Trust Company, as Executor of the last will of Norman W. Kittson, deceased, and the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railroad. Plaintiff's Evidence -(Testimony and Exhibits) (See next card)

[Found in Minnesota State Historical Society]

Carp, Johann or John

makes the statement, " I visited St. Paul three or four times in said period, the first time in September and August, 1873. In July and August, 1875 I visited America again, but I am not certain if I visited St. Paul at that time. In November and December, 1876 and February, 1877 I was again in St. Paul."

See: Page 733 (In the United States Circuit Court District of Minnesota In Equity Jesse P. Farley, complainant vs. James J. Hill, The St. Paul Trust Company, as Executor of the last will of  man W. Kittson, deceased, and the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railroad. Plaintiffs Evidence.)
(cont'd on next card)

(card 2)

[In Minnesota State Historical Society]