

1883, January 31.

Kennedy to Hill.

"Lord Dorne arrived here from Washington yesterday morning and left for Ottawa last night. I called on him at his Hotel... + had quite a long chat with him. He takes a great interest in the Canadian Pacific Ry and enquired particularly as to all that was going on. He wanted particularly to know what kind of a battle Major Rogers had found through the Mountains but I could not tell him."