

1887, February 8th.

Kennedy to Hill.

Wants to resign vice-presidency;
criticism of shifting burden from other directors to Hill and Kennedy's shoulders. Wants Hill to learn from Stephen why he has not written his letter of resignation; will write Donald A. Smith asking him to... assume his fair share of the enormous responsibility we are (now + ma.)