

1886, June 11

Kennedy to Hill.

Reports on his trip to Senators and Representatives in Washington; no need to fear objectionable legislation re land matters. The sale by Becker of the Ellendale line to Washburn is all more favor; now we can "go boldly into the territory, which is seeking an outlet by sewer lines to the north."