

1901, July 22

John S. Kennedy to Jas. J. Hill.

E. D. Adams's "resignation" was, of course, a foregone conclusion and "there are at least four men on the present Board that can be retired to advantage." Re the Holding Co. "I think the sooner we get it in operation the better."