

1886, July 24

Kennedy to Hill.

Cost of steel rails from England $19.52 per ton, but duty is $17 per ton, which is perfectly outrageous. I could write a pamphlet showing the Granger farmers how every industry is protected at the expense of the farmer's grain. "Such a pamphlet could be used with telling effect amongst the grangers and before the Legislature at its next session."