

1886, October 16

John S. Kennedy to James J. Hill.

Re sale of Consols, prices of railway materials, Pearsall's proposition, rumors in Wall Street (re our road) telegram from Sir George (Stephen) "I have no doubt when he reaches London he will send you his resignation."