

1896, November 4

John S. Kennedy to James J. Hill.

Comment on presidential election and reference to Hill's "in contemplation" [probably Northern Securities Co.]
as far as they would affect certain "Amsterdam parties" who are "passing great Northern stock on the market." Should not a hint be given them to hold on?