

Clark, Greenleaf

Jan. 26, 1897

Clark to JJH, General Correspondence

"I hope you will not deem me unduly importunate if I venture to remind you of two things, one the appointment of Mr. Newel to a foreign mission by the next administration, either to Brussels or Mexico. It is thought that this hangs largely on Senator Davis, and I hope you may have some suggestions to make to him upon this matter."