

Conservation of Nat'l resources Sept. 9, 1910
- Congress

Hill to John H. Carroll

"The Conservation Congress here broke up in a row. The attempt on the part of the active managers to run the entire thing for the benefit of personal politicians had the effect of sending the delegates of nine of the Western States away from the convention."

JJH LetterBook, 3/17/10 - 5/26/11, p. 187