

Constance Mining Co. - Papers, 1897 - 1903

5 boxes, 10 volumes. <sup>in 2 boxes</sup> For a detailed appraisal of these papers, see "Constance Mining Co." in Reports, 1965, filed alphabetically. There is also a copy at the beginning of Box 1 of the papers.

Unsuccessful gold and other mineral mining ventures of Hill and others at Index and other places in the Cascade Mts. of state of Washington and in Alaska. C.E. Haber was the mining engineer of the original exploring syndicate: Allgemeines Explorations Unternehmen in Germany Phoebus Exploring Assoc. in England; and Exploration Associates in the U.S. Incorporation as Constance Mining Co. ~~at~~ place on Dec. 19, 1899. Topics and persons involved: Troublesome Creek, mining claims, diggings, &c.; Thos. Burke, pres.; J.D. Farrell, director; E. Coley, Hans Giese, James Constable, Robert Van Gember (managing director, followed in that capacity by Theodor Mat- esdorf); Monte Cristo and Rogue River mining regions; Henry W. Lung; etc. There are; letter sent and received; insurance policies, patents, claims, indentures, certificates of location, proofs of labor, agreements, articles of incorporation, etc., etc. in profusion and with no clear indication of relationship in many cases.

Special File # 1 by alphabet