

Crop Yield - Red River      July 27, 1897
Valley

Carbon. [Hill] to Adams.

Many thousands of acres in Red River Valley have flooded to extent of 12-20 inches and it is feared much the grain will not mature before fall frosts. But the uplands have benefited from the rain and there should be a good average crop or better on them.

General Correspondence by Date.

