

Daumier

March 29, 1893.

Durand-Ruel is sending Hill five photographs of Daumier's painting entitled "Inside of a Third Class Compartment" and states that it 'is certainly the best picture by that artist... wonderful in color and also as a study of character.'

General Correspondence.