

Dunbar, U.S.J.

October 23, 1907

Horace J. Stevens to James J. Hill.

Dunbar wishes to obtain the commission for a statue of Judge Hubbell of Houghton, Michigan. Requests Hill's opinion regarding quality of Dunbar's work.

See carbon of Hill's reply, dated Oct. 26, 1907 re the busts of Governor Ramsey and Henry M. Rice,—"both of which are remarkably life-like and in all very satisfactory."
