

Dunwoody, William H.

Dec. 14, 1893

Dunwoody to JJH, Gen. Corresp.

"I send to you by bearer samples of bread of both grades of flour made by the Great Falls and Minneapolis Mills. We think the flour of the former mills makes the best bread. The sample of bakers grade of Minneapolis mills is the flour I mentioned to you as suitable for the poor."