Dutch Bondholders' Committee

On June 20, 1873 a meeting was held in Amsterdam, Holland at which a committee representing a majority of the bondholders of the main and branch lines of the St. Paul and Pacific R.R. was appointed.

Johan Carp and J.S. Kennedy & Co. were chosen to represent the committee.

Aug. 13, 1875 the president of the St. Paul & Pacific R.R. was authorized at a meeting of its board of directors, in New York, to enter an agreement with Carp & Kennedy Co (representing the Dutch bondholders) and Edwin and E. Darwin Litchfield
