

Elliott, Howard

August 13, 1913

Elliott to Hill

Is leaving for his new post, the presidency of the New York, New Haven, & Hartford Road. With several enclosures telling of his life: "my railroad work has been west of the Mississippi River where in July, 1880, I began as a level rodman in western Missouri on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy.... On October, 23, 1903, I became President of the Northern Pacific...."
