

Emigration & Immigration January 20,, 1903

M. J. Costello to Twomey [sic].

"Our advices from Winnepeg at this office [Catholic Settlement Society] indicate that we may have some difficulty in continuing to ship our people and their effects over the G. N. line next Spring, owing to the reported determination of your line to break bulk at Neche.."

"Many hundreds of settlers with their effects will leave the United States for our German Catholic Settlement at St. Benedict, outside Regina, N.W.T."
General correspondence by date.