

Emigration & Immigration

May 9, 1882

George H. Hopper to J. J. Hill.

"Mr. A. J. Van Solen, one of our blacksmiths [on Manitoba Road] .. leaves for Europe the last of this month .. and at my suggestion, desires to do a little something in the way of soliciting for the immigration department. He is well acquainted in Scandinavia, Holland."

General correspondence by date

