

Emigration and Immigration

April 16,02

To George H. Maxwell

Re migration of good farming people from U.S., particularly from Iowa, to Canada, urged on by Can. gov't immigration agents in U.S. All non-irrigable lands of worth in U.S. are gone. Movement to Canada will reach 20 to 25,000 persons this year. 7 to 10,000 are good farmers from the states east of Montana, and from Montana as many more will go. [Same letter, p. 360, to Paris Gibson).
