

Fairbanks, J. W.

Feb. 24, 1888

Fairbanks to JJH, General Correspondence

"I have waited patiently for you to take some action in this matter and must now insist upon a final settlement or payment of my salary in accordance with the terms of our mutual agreement - and - furthermore - must insist that this settlement or payment be made without further delay."