

Falls of St. Anthony-Painting Jan. 30, 1898

James Fairman to J.J.Hill.

Offers painting originally painted on order of Wm. King of Minneapolis, who later was not able to purchase it,

States: "It is 7 feet by about 4 feet. Is procured from studies made by Mr. Catlin, the painter of Indians, 50 years ago; also from a dagueratype of 1847. The topography is absolutely authentic. It is copyrighted."

General correspondence by date

[See other side c

J.J.Hill did not see the painting. See carbon, dated Feb. 25, 1898 in which Hill states that he does not wish to buy the painting.

General correspondence by date