

Farrell, J. D.

March 18, 1899

J. D. Farrell to L. W. Hill.

Re terminals in [Seattle][?]. Has talked with Mellen, who seems willing to allow J.J. Hill and L. W. Hill to name the price of the land. Mellen agrees to a union depot, but insists on a separate freight house and tracks.

General correspondence by date

