

Farrell, J.D.

October 20, 1898.

J.D.Farrell to J.J.Hill.

Re possible coal located thirty miles down the Columbia River from Kettle Falls, and fourteen miles from that stream. Walker believes it would be impossible to build a railroad to it.

General Correspondence by date.

