

Farrer, Gaspard

June 2, 1911

Hill to Charles R. Van Hise

Encloses letters of introduction to Baring Bros and Co. & the Deutsche Bank of Berlin. "Messrs. Baring Bros. & Co. are the oldest international banking house in London and have for many years had a large business with South America. Mr. Gaspard Farrer, a member of the house, is here. [He thinks Berlin worth your while] They have close connections with some of the largest steel people in England, who are now importing high grade iron ores for home use... I have, in a limited way, explained to Mr. Farrer something of your work in South America.
