

Fisher, Wm. F.

March 21, 1879

Hill to George Stephen

Re decrees and Judge Young's continued, unexplained absence in St. Louis. Kittson & two MacTavishes are in Chicago to meet [Donald] Smith. Re Upper & the Pembina Branch. Wakema begins work on April 1; McKinley here today ~~buy~~ renting a house. Farley thinks he is not right man to supersede Sawyer, though he is Kennedy's choice. Wakeman to be supt. Farley doesn't want to get along without Fisher & has come to Kittson & JJH to see if it is necessary for Fisher to go. We told him we didn't want to go against Kennedy's wishes. Fisher is only man who can help Farley do his correspondence.
