

Flour trade - Minneapolis January 8, 1912

Hill to H.M. Allen, gen. mgr., Allen & Wheeling
Co., Troy, Ohio

Some friends of mine in 1863 built a flour mill in Minneapolis and as Minnesota flour was unknown then, they called it "Muskingum Valley Flour." of the Muskingum Valley Mills, and attributed it to S.T. Raguet & Co., Troy, Ohio Mr. Raguet, who formerly lived in Zanesville, was advised, of course.

JJH LetterBook, 5/27/11 - 6/10/16, p. 149