

Furber, P.^{D.}

Member of firm [?] of Peabody & Stearns of Boston, St. Louis & New York, who were the architects that drew plans for the J.J.Hill residence at 240 Summit Ave., St. Paul.

Furber was the man with whom Hill and his contractor, Brodie most often corresponded.

See Hill's J.J. - Residences - in this file,
General Correspondence.