Furness, Evans & Co. to JJH [telegram], General
Correspondence

"in regard to interior of your house I have arrived at that stage which renders it extremely important for me to see you and it would be much better for me to see you here. I should like to show you Mr. Cassatt's house which we have just completed can you not spare me a few hours in Phila. on your way west if not please appoint time when I can see you in New York."
