

The Farmer, weekly newspaper, 1886-1891

Records of the agricultural weekly under two administrators: George Wm. Hill of the Farmers' Publishing Co., St. Paul, March 27, 1886-July 27 1888; and Orange Judd of the Orange Judd Farmer Co., Chicago, July 27, 1888 - Feb. 28, 1891. J.J. Hill largely supported this venture, which was a failure financially under both men. The records are mainly of office routine: expenses, assets, number of subscribers, employees and their salaries, advertising information, correspondence with J.J. Hill, travel expenses, letters of appreciation from subscribers,

(over)