

Gibson, Paris

May 16, 1882

Hill to Gibson, Fort Benton

Scrip for your use belongs to me & Robbins who has power of atty. from the half breeds & as it is next to impossible to find the half breed in order to get power of atty. in your name & as Robbins cannot get up the country, the location will have to be made from here. If you will make a plot of the property in parcels as per our scrip and send it to Robbins, he will forward it to the proper land office, which please name. Scrip available for use: Seymour Labath[e] #340E, 60 acres; Ibid, # 340C, 80 acres; Lucy Welch, #25¹ C, 80 acres: total 320 acres.

JJH LetterBook, 9/24/79 - 7/20/82, p. 459